

The Caribbean Shipping Association (CSA)

invites suitably qualified persons to apply for the

CSA – MONICA SILVERA SCHOLARSHIP

Created in memory of Mrs. Monica Silvera, the first female Executive Vice President of the Caribbean Shipping Association (CSA), this scholarship is open to persons residing in member countries of the CSA who are interested in the pursuance of higher education in the shipping, logistics and supply chain management sectors.

Degree programmes

Logistics and Supply Chain Management

Cruise Shipping and Marine Tourism

Port Management

International Shipping

Industrial Engineering

Security Administration and Management

The scholarship, which is tenable at the Caribbean Maritime Institute, covers tuition costs for four years for any selected Bachelor of Science degree programme offered by the Institute commencing September 2009. The successful candidate will be announced at Caribbean Shipping Executives Conference in Cartagena, Colombia in May 2009.

ENTRY REQUIREMENTS

The CSA is cognizant that educational qualifications may not be the same in each territory, so interested persons may access detailed information on entry requirements via the CSA website. However, candidates will be expected to satisfy the matriculation requirements and academic standards established by the Caribbean Maritime Institute.

HOW TO APPLY

Kindly visit the CSA website at www.caribbeanshipping.org for the approved application form, detailed entry requirements and full programme details. Completed applications with supporting documents should be postmarked by February 20, 2009 and directed to:

The Registrar
Caribbean Maritime Institute
Palisadoes Park, P.O. Box 8081, Kingston CSO, Jamaica W.I.
Tel: (876) 924-8150/9; Fax: (876) 924-8158